Frosh Hop Bid Sales Complete

250 Bids Will Be Sold By Friday Says Freshman President

A land-office business in Frosh Hop tickets is reported by College Hall headquarters, with the sales increasing as the date, March 13, 1937, approaches. With more than 150 bids sold to date, the goal of 250 by noon Friday is confidently expected, it was announced.

It is estimated, that the 500 expected guests, with 5′ 5″ as the averaged representative height of college men and women, if laid end to end, would reach from the Palace Hotel to the first pylon of the San Francisco-Oakland Bridge, or approximately 2800 feet.

Bids are on sale for $1.50 per couple. Music will be furnished by Charles Horton and his orchestra, who features Stater Jack Martin, as one of his solo instrumentalists.

Sports Night Held Friday in Women's Gym

When Friday night rolls around all State guys and gals who go in for fun and frolic will wander toward the Gym and indulge in some, or all, of the various sports offered by the W. A. A.

Volleyball, ping-pong, relays and group games (fun!) can be enjoyed by all who fall in with the crowd and head toward the Gym.

This event starts at 7:00, and ends when you want to leave and is in the way of an introduction to future Sports Nights, and if it is a success, which only we students can make it, it will be followed by others.

Intercollegiate World's Fair Outstanding Event

With final arrangements well under way for the pending Intercollegiate World's fair held April 5 on Robert's Field, Alpha Phi Gamma, college journalism fraternity, promises to stage one of the most outstanding events of the College activities for the spring semester.

Under the direction of W. J. J. Smith, general chairman of the affair and his assisting committees, nearly all the campus organizations have been contacted and have offered to lend their assistance. Arrangements are being made for a gala drill team competition, featuring the outstanding teams of the bay areas.

Tickets will go on sale for the fair today. General admission to all open exhibits will be 25c, according to Elsa Magnus, president of the fraternity. Marie Hirsch, Box 571, is assisting Miss Magnus in the admission sales. Plans are being made for ticket sales competitions, with tentative arrangements calling for a prize of a silver cup to the individual selling the most tickets, as well as one to the club making the most sales.

March 15 Deadline For Senior Pictures

January 18, 1937.

Referred to Committee on State Colleges.

An act to provide additional land and buildings for the use of the San Francisco State College and making an appropriation therefor.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. College Spirit Revived In Song Fest

Contest to End April 4 Committee Gives Rules

By BUD DECKER

State is on the market. Yes, on the market for a library of pep songs to be used at games at rallies. The "Golden Tide" has taken a beating now for years as State's sole school song. Now the opportunity is presented to the entire student body to participate in a contest to find six songs to add to our repertoire which now contains one song.

Under the sponsorship of the rally committee, State is holding a song contest. The rules are posted in College Hall, where the Daily Stater formerly held sway, and the contest is open to any member of the student body.

The contest ends Friday, April 14, after which time judgment will be passed by Mrs. Ruth Witt-Diamant, on the songs submitted. Dr. Knuth, Ed Cockrum, and Bud Decker will act as judges. The winning songs will be played at the Minstrel Show in Frederic Burk auditorium, Friday and Saturday evenings, April 30, and May 1. The prizes to be awarded will be publicly displayed in the student body office two weeks before the Minstrel Show.

You don't have to be a music major to enter this contest and you may have anyone help you and enter your song with co-authors. The music does not have to be original but the lyrics do, so everyone is asked to cooperate and help themselves as well as the school in State's first Song Contest.

Little Theatre To Be Used in Future

College Theatre announces that in the future all productions will be staged in Little Theatre. The outstanding feature in Little Theatre's favor over Frederic Burk is the seating arrangement. In the former the audience will have an excellent view of the entire stage; that is they will look down on the actors instead of up as in the case of Frederic Burk auditorium.

"However," announced Miss Casebolt, "some additions will have to be made, before we will be able to use Little Theatre."

Bjornsen's romantic comedy "When the New Wine Blooms" will probably be the next play to be undertaken by College Theatre.

Dates of the tryouts for Bjornsen's play will be announced by Miss Casebolt.

"When the New Wine Blooms" deals with the love aspirations of a couple in the springtime of life. From the very first line romantic comedy is introduced and "Little Theatre will be the setting of all future plays," states Miss Casebolt regarding future College Theatre productions. The advantages in having plays here are quite evident. Because of the arrangement of the audience in relation to the stage a better perspective will be had.

Alpha Phi Gamma Opens New Journalism Class

Alpha Phi Gamma officially inaugurates the first meeting in its series of journalism instruction classes today at noon in room 209 when Clarice Dechent, Director of the Board of Publications and W. J. J. Smith, former editor of the Golden Gater speak on the editorial and business aspect of the Golden Gater.

These classes have been designed by the fraternity to augment the journalism instruction of the College and have the combined approval of the English Department, the Board of Publications, and the Administration.

Jean Coplestone, former editor of the Golden Gater and Max R. Williamson who succeeded her upon her resignation last week, will be featured in the next meeting a week from today. They will discuss the composition and the various aspects of the news story, according to Howard Demeke, committee chairman.

Winner of California Hour Featured at Rally

Featuring Helen Cox, the winner of the California Hour Program, a rally will be held in the Women's Gymnasium today at noon.

The purpose of the rally, according to Bud Decker, head yell leader, is "to focus the attention of the student body on the track team and their coming season, and to urge student support of track competitions."

Entertainment for the rally will be supplied by local talent sources.

It is exepcted that the rally will end sometime before one o'clock so that students who attend will have sufficient time to eat lunch.

IMPORTANT NOTICES

Miss Cooch, of the College art department, has had an oil painting she did last summer accepted by the three juries of the Annual Art Exhibition of Oakland, and is now on display in the Art Gallery of the Oakland auditorium until the seventh of April. The painting as a still life, sixteen by twenty, in browns, blues, and greens and is done in modernistic style.

The Low Senior class continued their policy of holding their class meeting at dinners and met last night at a downtown restaurant. The class in inaugurating this plan, believes that the group will meet more often at a dinner than other places.

Strategy Group Storms Capitol

Strong Opposition To Measure Expected; Other Colleges Compete for Money

By W. J. J. SMITH

State College's Strategy Committee composed of Ed Cockrum, Howard Demeke, Bud Decker, and Will Smith reported satisfactory progress as a result of Wednesday's trip to Sacramento to confer with state officials on the current building program.

Roberts Speaks

At a meeting held in the Library and Arts Building Wednesday afternoon, Dr. Alexander C. Roberts spoke briefly, outlining the needs of the college and introduced Ed Cockrum, who stressed the fact that San Francisco State was first in the allocation of capital funds when those funds were distributed. He also described the situation here at the college that made such a statement logical.

Other Claims Aired

Present at the meeting were numerous assemblymen, section representatives, and college presidents. Speakers were: Dr. Thomas of Fresno State, Dr. McQuarrie of San Jose State, Dr. Phelps of Santa Barbara State, and other heads who outlined their own needs at the same meeting.

Members of the Strategy Committee conferred with virtually every one of the San Francisco delegation in the State Assembly during the day and "sat in" on the debate over Mooney's Resolution.

$2,000,000 Asked

About one week hence the whole matter of capital outlay for San Francisco State College comes before the state committee on Ways and Means. At this time the proposed bill for over $2,000,000 comes up for discussion and members of the Strategy Board of the college believe there will be some sharp opposition to the measure. However, the bill has strong support which is backed by certain commitments on the part of state officials.

Rally Committee Seeks Minstrel Show Talent

Additional talent for the Minstrel Show is still being sought by the Rally committee, sponsors of the affair. Tap dancers, crooners, mandolin players or any other amateurs who feel that they have something to contribute are asked to contact Audrey Stewart, Dawn Wilson, Patricia McNamara, Howard Brubeck, Cliff Worth, Howard Demeke, Vernon Oulette or Harold Delma.

The Minstrel Show will be held in Frederic Burk auditorium April 30, and May 1. The seating capacity of the auditorium is to be raised to 400 for these performances.

Hail To Committee

Now that the building campaign is nearing its completion with the appropriations bill pending before the legislature, let's stop and reflect upon the activities on the part of a few individuals that have made it possible that we at least have a fair chance for proper housing conditions.

Through the untiring efforts of the Student Body officers, through the wealth of publicity that has been received by the publicity department, as well as the efforts of the students composing the strategy committee, the campaign has progressed to its present status.

If the legislature sees our requests in a favorable light, and new buildings are built, a space in one of them should be reserved for the names of these people. Let Justice be given where it is due.

Rising Science Department

Not much has been said lately about the newest building on the campus, the annex to Anderson Hall. Aside from the fact that occasional classes, both science and academic, are held in the building, little is known of the progress that has been made.

Workmen have been quietly going about the business of installing highly specialized equipment in many of the rooms. When finished, the addition will have laboratories for chemistry, physics, photography, and offices and supply rooms. According to the specifications, it will compare favorably with similar buildings in many of the major Universities throughout the country.

A great deal of publicity has been given to the other very active departments of the College. Is it not about time that someone gave some recognition to our rising science department?

Gater, Spartans Meet Saturday

GATER SPORTS

Cindermen Take On Cal-Aggies

SPORT SHANTS

By DAVE SCHUTZ

State's athletic teams really have a tough weekend ahead of them starting right in this afternoon. The baseball team, always having its hands full takes on Menlo Junior College today and San Jose State tomorrow. Both games are slated for Roberts Field and spectators are cordially invited to attend. At the first few games of the year, only the gal friends of the players were on hand, give the mugs that haven't got one a chance to have some rooters of their own.

Dan Farmer's netmen sort of put their chins out with an extra tough schedule. This afternoon they meet their city rivals from San Francisco University at Palace of Fine Arts in a league game, and tomorrow they return to the Palace courts to battle the Cal Aggies racket wielders.

The rest of the Cal Aggies student body comes into town tomorrow to do battle with Dave Cox's track artists at Kezar Stadium. The locals will be tasting their first bit of college competition of the season, but they should take an easy verdict from the Mustang gallopers.

—S.S.—

It's time for another blast so here goes. About a month ago something was said about starting a golf team here at State. Well, nothing has been done about it, and the golf season is about half over and the Gaters have yet to have some representatives in the divot digging sport. Someone ought to start doing something, those who want to play tell someone important about it.

—S.S.—

State's second chance to get back at the Junior College for the two basketball lickings takes place next Tuesday afternoon at Roberts Field when the Gater nine will again show the Jaysee how to play baseball. For those who have forgotten, last year the Purple and Gold, playing an inspired Ram ball club, was only able to win out by a close 24-6 score. This season with just as good a team the Staters expect to again smear the Powell Street boys all over the lot. Attend the contest if you want to see one of the sweetest revenges of all time. Knock on wood; we may be bragging too much.

MEN—IMPORTANT

At 12:20 this afternoon, in room 208 V. H. Ragsdale, Commander, U. S. Navy, will personally interview all men interested in training for Naval Aviators.

In his letter to the College, Commander Ragsdale states that he believes that one desiring a thorough aviation training could find no more attractive proposition.

Members of the Senior Class are especially requested to attend.

Baseball Squad Meets San Jose, Menlo in Games

Stone, Gavron, Jones Possible Starting Pitchers

The Golden Gaters of Buchanan Street will cross bats with the Menlo Junior College baseball team this afternoon and San Jose State Saturday. The locals with seven straight triumphs, will be trying to run their string to nine over the weekend.

Coach Hal Harden, guiding light of the Gater nine, is undecided about the starting lineup, but hinted that he would probably start his second string against Menlo, saving the regulars for the Spartans tomorrow. Harden stated that the probable starting battery for today will be Andy Gavron pitching, and Bill Abbey behind the plate. Runar Stone will go in to relieve Gavron if necessary. Owen Jones, just over an attack of flu, will start for the Purple and Gold against San Jose with Abbey again doing the catching.

If Harden decides to give the subs a chance, Bill Rose will replace Bogie at first, Roy Wormell will move in at short, Doug Crary will shove Lee out at third, Dave Parker, George Peters, and Ed Collins will take over the outfield posts.

Both games will be played at Roberts field. Today's contest against Menlo starts at 4 o'clock; tomorrow's game time will be 2. There is no charge, so come on out.

Netmen Tackle Two Opponents Over Weekend

English, Hammond Expected To Win Their Matches

After a bad start last Saturday against the Santa Clara Broncs, the Gater tennis men today meet their city rival in the Northern California Tennis Association, the University of San Francisco. And on Saturday the California Aggie court crew comes to town along with its tracksters from Davis to take on the Staters in a non-league match.

The Purple fared badly in the tilt with the Prune Valley team last week, winning only two singles matches and one doubles match, for a score of 6-3. Ronnie English and Billy Hammond figured in all three victories. Both Hammond and English won their matches and then teamed up to take their doubles assignment.

A different result is expected today. The Dons have always been treated roughly by the Farmer proteges, having lost for the last three years. As there is to be a play-off between the two ranking teams at the season's end, the Gaters are far from being out of the championship picture. A win today would start the Staters off again after the league cup.

The California Aggies, perpetual victims of the Purple racquet wielders, come into San Francisco tomorrow to continue their battle with the Gaters. The Ags are not members of the league and consequently the match is not of the same importance as is the Friday tiff. Nevertheless the local boys will be out after that victory in no small way.

Both the U. S. F. and the Cal-Aggies matches are to be played at the Palace of Fine Arts courts.

Near Fist Fight Features Victory of Gater Nine Over Sacred Heart

With players rushing onto the field from all sides, a near free-for-all was dished out as the State baseballers defeated Sacred Heart 5-4 last Tuesday at Roberts Field.

Joe Lee, rounding second on a bad throw from the pitcher, was neatly blocked out by the Irish short stop, and Lee jokingly faked a kick which started the blood a boiling in the prep infielder. Out came players from both benches, but feelings cooled off when it was decided that everything was okey.

The game itself, although rather well played, had several weird occurrences. Coach Hal Harden started Manager Dave Schutz on the mound, but had to shove Ru Stone in right away as the high schoolers started hitting. Stone held the boys pretty well in check the rest of the game while State was garnering enough runs to win.

Bill Abbey with a triple and single and Sid Fisher with a pair of singles led the Gaters in hitting. Hal Woods' fielding at third base was stupendous.

Tracksters Entertain Cal Aggies in Cinder Meet at Kezar; Records Expected

Daryl Hopkins Ready for Best Performances in Opening College Meet of the Year; Aggies Stronger Than Squad of Last Season.

A Jones Boy

Owen Jones, reformed track man, who will probably get the pitching assignment in one of this weekend's crucial baseball games. Jones has just recovered from the flu, but says he's okey.

Old Man Injuries and his twin offsprings, Charley Horse and Torn Muscles, have decided to make it tough for the Gater track and field squad in the meet with Cal Aggies tomorrow at Kezar.

Daryl Hopkins, who knows a little bit about high jumping and hurdling, has been unable to practice this week because of sore muscles in his back, and Bill Harkness, State's hope in the pole vault, has a torn shoulder ligament.

Hopkins, who was picked by Coach Dave Cox as the successor to Iron Man Stone, will be able to compete against the squad from Davis, but Harkness is not expected to be up to snuff by the morrow.

Full Squad in Meet

The injuries did not set well with Cox who wanted to present his best at this first inter-collegiate meet of the season. However, the Head Man will toss in his graduates from the Frosh squad in an attempt to make up the loss.

Coach E. S. Wilson of the visiting Mustangs will bring a fairly strong squad in an endeavor to offset two lickings from the Gaters of last year. Outstanding are Floyd Millsap, former Sacramento J. C. sprint star; Ralph Throop, middle distance runner; Fred Frick, hurdler, and Richard Rex, pole vaulter.

The first event of the meet, the mile run, will bring together two of the best men on both teams. Ralph Throop will match strides with Stan Kuder, fast-moving State veteran. Kuder, who has worn the Gater colors for two years, was clocked in 4:49.8 for the four-lap event last week on a slow track. However, the red-headed galloper expects to turn on the heat tomorrow.

Hopkins in Duel

Hopkins, if he rounds into shape, will find plenty on his hands in the form of Frick of the Aggies. Both tracksters have covered the low and high hurdle distances in 16 flat and 25.6 seconds.

Steve Ebert, a letterman, will lead the Gater weight-tossers, which is still an unknown quantity. Dick Hurst will be featured in the javelin throw with ~~second man in the events slated to be~~ Eric Pantages. Errol Evans, diminutive dark-flash who looked good in the All-Star, will duel with Millsap in the sprint events which should be close.

Intramural Baseball To Start March 22

With the coming of spring intramural baseball bows into the athletic picture here at State with the opening battle slated for Monday, March 22.

All those wishing to play should sign up for some team immediately as no one who is not registered will be able to participate.

Purple and Gold ribbons will be presented to each player on the winning team. The winner will be decided through a round robin schedule. Games will be played every school day at noon on the upper field. Starting time will be 12:15, any team that is not ready to play by that time will lose by default.

Everyone is eligible except those who have won their blocks in baseball.

W. A. A. SPONSORS FENCING CLUB

A Fencing Club is to be sponsored by the W. A. A. for those interested in the sport.

According to Miss Evelyn Stadelman, secretary of the W. A.A., this course is opened to all members of the student body interested in fencing. So far, there have been 20 persons who have signed up.

"Since we have had only one meeting, plans for the semester have not been definitely settled, announced Miss Stadelman, but we insure fun for all who attend the class."

Sports Calendar

Saturday, March 13—
Baseball: State vs. San Jose State at Roberts Field.
Track: State vs. Calif.-Aggies at Kezar Stadium.
Tennis: State vs. Calif.-Aggies at Palace of Fine Arts.

Would You Believe It?

Each day, as many as 1600 tickets are passed in and out in the cafeteria. Only 800 or 900 of them are punched, however.

With ticket losses, spillings, broken dishes, noise in the cafeteria, and numerous other things, we marvel that Mrs. Nattinger can keep her pleasant disposition. This week's orchid goes to her.

Low Juniors Hold Social Meeting

Enthusiastically following and backing the suggestions of their new president, the low Junior class held its first meeting under Prexy Laugesen.

Elected to the office of secretary-treasurer was J. Wallace Gallagher; the office being held to a second vote because of the "dead heat" having been run by the earlier contestants.

Chief among the plans of the Juniors for the near future was a swim to be held in the second week of April. The Fairmont plunge will probably be the locale, though Crystal Plunge is also being considered.

"The newly-appointed entertainment board, comprising J. W. Gallagher, Herb Vecki, Ruth Bradley, W. J. J. Smith, and Carola Beetz, will cooperate with the class officers in planning all Low Junior activities," stated Roy Laugesen.

Sphinx Hear Speaker

Dr. Treutlein spoke before the Sphinx Club March 8 on the subject "Father Glandorf, Apostle in Mexico." This priest was a German Jesuit, who worked among the Tarahumara Indians. He is known throughout Mexico as "Our Holy One", and worked among the natives since he was 30 years old until he was past 60.

"You must have a big voice to sing Wagner. My favorite role of 'Brunnhilde' in Wagner's 'Gotterdammerung' is a very exacting one. Yet—when I am back in my dressing room after I have finished singing, there is nothing I enjoy more than lighting up a Lucky. It is a light smoke—so gentle—so smooth—that it does not irritate my throat in the least. I agree with the others at the Metropolitan that a light smoke is a wise choice."

An independent survey was made recently among professional men and women—lawyers, doctors, lecturers, scientists, etc. Of those who said they smoke cigarettes, more than 87% stated they personally prefer a light smoke.

Miss Lawrence verifies the wisdom of this preference, and so do other leading artists of the radio, stage, screen and opera. Their voices are their fortunes. That's why so many of them smoke Luckies. "Baccalaureate Is Bosh" Says Kansas Editor

(By Associated Collegiate Press)

Fayetteville, Ark.—In a move to do away with traditional Commencement exercises, The Traveler, University of Arkansas student newspaper, published an editorial proposing to "abolish in one sweep the expense, nuisance, and nonsense of Graduation week."

"Of all the claptrap and useless fixtures of college life, Commencement is one of the principal absurdities," said Editor John Hutchison.

Declaring that Commencement serves no other purpose than to burden the student with several extra days of tiresome program, cap-and-gown discomfort, and board bills, the editorial goes on to say that "some students look forward to the day they will stalk in solemn procession to accept their sections of sheepskin, but most look forward in sighing resignation to an unnecessary and irksome period of frippery."

"How many seniors want to sit through a baccalaureate sermon comprising little else but hollow platitudes and faulty philosophy " the editorial asks. "How many seniors have any desire to endure a funeral exercise featuring boresome introductions, political bombast and mediocre music?"
